GIRLS JUMP INTO TORRENT

SANTA ROSA, March 31 — (UP)—A girl student of Sonoma State Home at Eldridge was drowned and a second was believed today to have met a similar fate in an unsuccessful attempt of three girls to escape from the institution.

The drowning victim was identified as Pauline McClung, 14, San Jose. Helen Hooker, 22, Grass Valley, was missing and was believed to have been drowned.

Nineteen-year-old Erma Parsons, Fresno, who fled with them, was rescued. She suffered minor injuries.

Tried Swim Across

The three girls left a nursery cottage at the institution
